BASED ON TRUE FACTS

LOGLINE:
Forced due to extreme poverty Rukmini and Lachchi, two abandoned women in a village take to prostituting themselves on the highway; until the rape and murder of the 14 year old daughter of Rukmini changes them into avenging angels.

Two abandoned village women, who are outcasts of the village survive on the generosity of a truck owner who visits them twice a month and for a night halt consisting of liquor, food and a romp in the bed they get some good money and 20 kilos of rice that he transports all the way from his farm.

One day in the long absence of the truck owner a retired prostitute and a transgender come and convince them to earn more money by soliciting on the highway.
